

New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law should remain as it is. The citizens must be protected from telemarketers who invade our homes via telephone. Perhaps you should consider strengthening the federal program rather than weakening or dismantling New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law.